The two have been identified as brothers Moses and Gerson Batista, both 25 years old.

It is alleged that the two brothers were driving when Antonio opened fire from his car.

He allegedly first shot Moses in the right leg and then hit Gerson in the neck and upper arm.

Moses ran away while Gerson drove to the Rundu police station, where he collapsed and was rushed to hospital. The police tracked Antonio to his home, arrested him and seized his registered 9mm pistol. The motive for the shooting is still unclear, but there are rumours that the suspect had been romantically involved with the sister of the two victims.
